One hundred and fifty men were recently killed by the explosion of a powder magazine at Senar.

It is understood that Pope Leo has invited ten American Archbishops to Rome for consultation.

At Mystic Bridge, Ct., at the ceremonies attending the dedication of the Soldiers' Monument, while a salute was being fired in honor of the Governor by a battery of artillery from Fort Trumbull, Williams and Sedgwick Posts, G. A. R., passing at the time, received the contents of two guns in their ranks.

The first discharge was received by Williams Post, but the second, which was more serious in its results, was received by Sedgwick Post. Eighteen men were injured, more or less seriously, as follows: Commander J. C. Brewer, of Sedgwick Post, of Norwich, peppered from head to foot with powder—more than thirty pieces of coarse powder entering his side and limbs; Lieutenant Williams Caruthers, Assistant Postmaster at Norwich, head bruised from powder, and it is feared his injuries are fatal; Charles Young, of Norwich, artery cut in the leg and bleeding profusely, and peppered in the face, head and body with coarse powder. The injuries of the others are less serious. The injured men were consigned to private residences, and medical attendance promptly summoned.

During the eleven months of the present fiscal year ended May 31, there has been a falling off in receipts from customs as compared with the corresponding period of the preceding year of $7,173,940. It is estimated that the reduction will amount to $10,000,000 by the close of the fiscal year, June 30.

Col. Parker, chief inspector of the Post-office Department, has received telegrams announcing the arrest of the following-named postal clerks for stealing ordinary letters from the mail: W. R. Senter, at Lacrosse, Wis.; Philip Gildbert, at Indianapolis, Ind.; and R. T. Johnson, Marshall, Texas.

The boom in Confederate securities at Richmond, Va., continues. There have been sales at auction of North Carolina war bonds at $4 per $1,000, and brokers are constant buyers of all classes of Confederate company securities. The house of Trunch & Co. has bought over $20,000,000 worth of these securities.
